BELLO ENZO BEAR OUR SPACE!

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bello Enzo Bear Our Space!, is a children s picture book. The objective of the story is one child s understanding of how important each one is! The given right of each child is emphasized when they are encouraged to assert and express their thoughts grounded on the very important notion of each human being s rights for his/her space in our cosmos. Taking space without reservation is all about being confident yet respectful to one s self and towards others. Bello Enzo Bear, as always looks forward to be with his friends at school. In the story it is all fun and joy for himself and his friends. Bello Enzo Bear shares his day at school with his teacher Maya and friends. The story is describing the significant importance of getting together at circle time to share and learn. Teacher Maya demonstrates and reinforces the goodness and the acceptance of all in this story. Children are keen learners. Their environment must allow the space for their inner potentials to unfold. Therefore, the prepared environment with the child s welfare at its core is the essence of this whimsical story. This story paves the way for other children to feel at ease. Children at very young age learn through their daily life experiences to interact in appropriate ways towards others and themselves. Children also learn early on in life to relate to each other in productive and positive ways. In the meantime, they develop a sense of their being while in the socially interactive environment. The interaction with their peers is treated with kindness and respect. They learn to feel balanced, secure and comfortable with their peers...
