But of how little service these and all the other charts hitherto extant of Germany are, will appear upon a stricter enquiry into their intrinsic value, from the excellent Mappa critica Germanica;, executed with unspeakable labour by professor Mayer, and published in 1750, by Homann's heirs. In consequence of which we hitherto know the true situation and distance of about twenty places only, and Germany is, by the old geographers, extended about a whole degree too far to the east. It is therefore...
